INCLEMENT WEATHER DAYS

The safety of students is the most important consideration when making the decision to cancel bus transportation or close schools. If bad weather jeopardizes safety, school buses may be cancelled and/or schools closed. Parents are urged not to phone the school but rather to tune in to local media on bad weather days. Decisions related to school closings and transportation of students are broadcast once available.

PARENT → SCHOOL COMMUNICATION

Staff members are eager to answer questions or address concerns:

- Parents/Guardians should contact the classroom or subject teacher.
- If questions or concerns remain, then parents/guardians should contact, in the following order:
- The Principal, Superintendent and Director of Education.

Trustees

- Trustees are your community advocates who can refer inquiries and concerns to the appropriate staff person, member of administration or to the attention of the board.
- The Greater Essex County District School Board's (GECDSB) Board of Trustees includes 10 Trustees and 2 Student Trustees. They are elected for a four-year term through the municipal election process.

Board Meetings

- Board or Standing Committee meetings are held on the first and third Tuesday of each month. For a complete schedule of Standing Committee and Board Meetings, Board Meeting agenda and minutes, as well as Trustee information please use the following hotlinks or visit our website.
