

How to Insert Titles and Credits

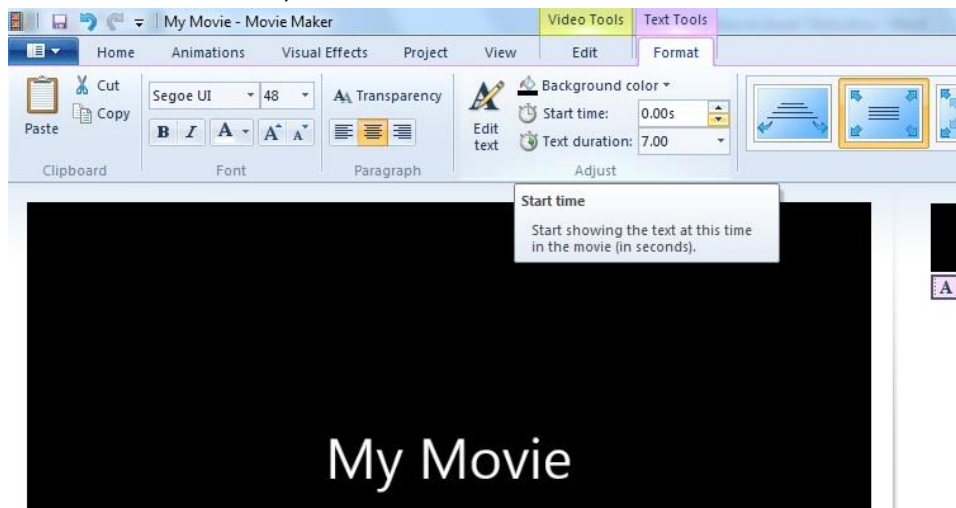

The purpose of this tutorial is to teach you how to display titles and credits in your presentation for function of informing the viewer on your topic. Titles can also enhance the experience of your presentation.

How to Insert Titles:

1. First select the clip you want to add a title to. From here, navigate to the top “Home” tab. Select “title”.

2. A text box will appear with a default text. Backspace all the text and insert your desired title.
3. To change the animation, you can select a transition for the text to appear as. If you hover your mouse over an animation, it will play a preview for you in the display box. To use an animation, click on one of the animation boxes. To change the duration of the text or the animation, choose the “start time” and “duration” time customization.

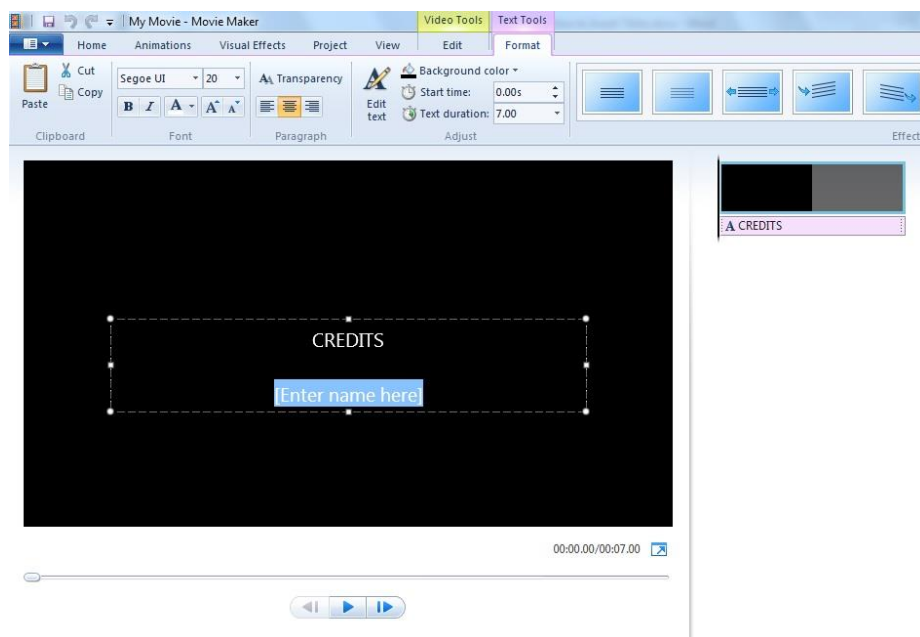

How to Insert Credits:

1. First select the clip you want to add the credits to. From here, navigate to the top “Home” tab. Select “Credits”.

2. A text box will appear with a default text. Backspace all the text and insert your desired credits.

3. To change the animation, you can select a transition for the credits to appear as. If you hover your mouse over an animation, it will play a preview for you in the display box. To use an animation, click on one of the animation boxes. To change the duration of the credits or the animation, choose the “start time” and “duration” time customization.

